Legion, Bradley Settle Vet Fight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)— The Veterans Administration and the American Legion made peace formally today.

Legion executives, led by National Commander Paul H. Griffith, spent an hour with General Bradley, veterans' administrator, at his office. After the meeting, Bradley and Griffith issued an unprecedented joint statement of agreement and co-operation.

Post Installs New Officers

Joint Rites Held In Mattapoisett

Mrs. Ellen Brown of Quincy, director of the 10th District Council of the American Legion Auxiliary, installed the officers of the Auxiliary to Florence Eastman Post in Mattapoisett Town Hall last night. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Foster of Marshfield, as sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Theodore Bradley was installed as president. Other officers were: First vice-president, Miss Mary Roza; second vice-president, Mrs. Edward Andrea-sen; secretary, Mrs. Joseph Farwell; treasurer, Mrs. Antonio Silva; historian, Mrs. Manuel Goulart; chaplain, Mrs. Joseph Furlado; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs.
Harry Kremp; executive committee, Mrs. Lillian Johnson, Mrs.
Edward DeCosta, Mrs. Joseph Bauer.

Mrs. Brown brought the greetings of the Council and in her brief talk stressed larger membership and 100 percent participation in the Christmas Gift project being carried out this year at the Veterans Hospital in West Roxbury. She presented Mrs. Furtado, retiring president, with a past president's pin.

Officers of the Legion were installed by John Murphy of Nor-well, 10th District Commander assisted by an installing suite comprised of Clarence Piper of Rockland, John Buckley and Henry Reghini of Bridgewater, and John McPhee, Anthony George, Harold George, and Graham Scudder, of Barnstable.

New commander of the post is Joseph Perry who heads the following officers: First vice-commander, Alfred Faria; second vice-commander Norwood Moore; adjutant, Michael Ellis; finance officer, George White; chaplain, William Corey; historian, Anthony DeCosta; sergeant-at-arms, Antonio Silva.

Commander Perry presented gifts to Commander Murphy and his Sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Buckley and made the following appointments: Membership committee, Anthony DeCosta, John Raphael; entertainment, John Bradley; registration officer, Ralph LeBaron; judge advocate, Guy Gardner. A special business meeting of the Legion will precede the social meeting to be held the second Thursday of November.

Refreshments and dancing completed the program. Music for the installation and dancing was by Walter Caswell.

Not Rose, But Rosy

TOKYO, Oct. 25 (AP)—
"Tokyo Rose" walked through the big steel gates of Sugamo Prison to freedom tonight, grinned for photographers and reporters, and said she wasn't "Tokyo Rose," after all. She insisted she was the girl American soldiers, sailors and marines heard over Radio Tokyo as "Ann, Orphan Ann, your favorite enemy and playmate."

Airport Heads Meet in Hyannis

100 Operators Attend Annual Convention

The Standard-Times Cape Cod Bureau HYANNIS, Oct. 25—About 100 airport operators are meeting today at the Hyannis Inn in the second day of the annual meeting of the New England Aviation Trades Association.

Business matters on the program include election of officers, consideration of a proposal that the association be divided into State groups and the selection of delegates to the National Aviation Trades Association meeting Nov.
20 and 21 at Cleveland.

The convention opened with a cocktail party and dinner yesterday. About 80 airport managers from all sections of New England attended. Representatives of company's which supply airplane fuel and lubricants were host at the party.
