TYPOS CELEBRATE.

OBSERVE 22D BIRTHDAY OF THEIR LOCAL WITH BANQUET.

Nearly 50 Members of Union, Together With Invited Guests, Enjoy Social Evening at Bristol House—John Hannigan Guest of Honor.

The New Bedford typos celebrated the 22d birthday of their local, No.
276, at the Bristol House on Monday night, where nearly 50 members of the union, together with a few invited guests, sat down to a well prepared banquet. The menu was as follows:

- Oysters on Shell.
- Purée of tomato soup.
- Mixed pickles.
- Boiled salmon.
- Creamed Potatoes.
- Celery.
- Roast stuffed turkey.
- Mashed potatoes.
- Assorted cake.
- Ice cream.
- Crackers and cheese.
- Coffee.

Those who sat down at the banquet were as follows:

- George Esslinger
- Frank S Tallman
- Fred W Frey
- William A Hamer
- Channing White
- Arthur F Francis
- Joseph A Norris
- Ernest C Howard
- Chester S Ripley
- John I Riley
- John B Dyer

- Edward McElride
- James H Killoran
- W J Dancereau
- Alexander Young
- Emile C Beleniot
- W A Mackie
- Jos M Kavanaugh
- Oliver B Nelson
- Fardon B Gifford

Before the members sat down Paul V. Murphy, chairman of the banquet committee, on behalf of the union, welcomed the guests and expressed pleasure that so many members of the union were present. He concluded by introducing President Hartley Spencer as toastmaster at the annual banquet exercises, which were to follow.

In opening the after dinner program President Spencer gave a brief outline of the purposes of the International Typographical union and told of the pension fund which is provided for members and their dependents and for those incapacitated.
He said that at present there were four women members on the pension roll of the international union, something which was not found on the pension roll of any other trade union. At present time, President Spencer stated that there were 100 members on the pension lists. He told the story of the hour at Colorado Springs and closed by explaining the increased death benefit which becomes effective on April 1 of this year.

John Hannigan, chairman of the local, in welcoming the guests of honor was introduced by the toastmaster as the watchdog of the municipal treasury. Mr. Hannigan expressed a great deal of pleasure at being one of the invited guests of the evening and having the good fortune to address the annual banquet and the body of men of which the membership of the union was composed. Mr.
Hannigan's address was as follows:

"In these times of universal industrial depression and discontent of the working classes of our country, the trades unionist became a noticeable figure in social and industrial society.
Who do you remember that has not acted and has guided with care and sound judgment with the intention of making our trades unions economic institutions working for the best interests of the community wherein they exist?—and I might say here that New Bedford is to be congratulated for having a man of this kind in the union industry; that man has learned to know the economic question through their unions. They know that the manufacturer is not at the present time prosperous, that some have been driven to the verge of bankruptcy. That some of them are losing their heads and the machinery is not running in full.
They are afraid to-day that they cannot draw blood from a stone and that whatsoever samples they have made in seeking a reduction in the hour's work have not been beneficial to the death and ruin of the trade, the economic law always tells the same story—to the effect that whenever the supply of prosperity in the to sit at the same table with the alderman. His friendship for Mr. Hannigan extended over a period of 17 years. There was no man in the city government whom the people will stand by like they will Alderman Hannigan, and he had earned this distinction from the fact that he had been thoroughly honest in all his dealings with them.

Wallace Marlic gave Shakespearean readings which were appreciated.
Karl T. Whitney made brief remarks, and he said that he believed with Abraham Lincoln in saying, "forgetting what has gone before, let us go forward to new fields of glory." William Harrington sang a song that was appreciated. Dennis J.
Murphy and Joseph A. Norris sang several songs and were well received.

TO DISCUSS COMPENSATION.

Committee Will Probably Recommend Pay for Harrington Graduates.

The sub-committee on elementary schools will hold a meeting this evening to discuss the matter of compensation for the critic teachers and for this year's graduates of the Harrington school, all of whom are now serving without pay. It is understood that if always has been the intent of the committee to recommend some rate of compensation for the young instructors and that it was postponed at the last meeting on account of the absence of certain members of the committee.

The call which the eighteen graduates of the schools paid to Mayor Asley and the protest which they registered at that time was on that account more or less unnecessary, and it is believed to arouse the indignation of some of the school committee members.

The exact rate of pay which it is planned to give the embryo teachers is not known, but it is probable that the recommendation of Superintendent Kellin in his report of several years ago will be followed, and that the young ladies will be given $7.25 per term during which they are placed under critic teachers.

Retiring President
Honored by Associates.

Alphonse A. Despres.
ENJOYABLE SMOKE TALK.

Gifts for Retiring President of Sharpshooters' Band.

The Sharpshooters' band held a private smoke talk in its Hicks street rooms Monday evening, the affair being in honor of Alphonse A.
Despres, for three years president of the band, who recently sent in his resignation. After a presentation speech by J. B. A. Marchessault, the retiring president was presented a gold watch chain with charm, the emblem of the Sharpshooters' society.
Mr. Despres responded, expressing his gratefulness to his friends and stated that his present occupations did not give him sufficient leisure to fulfill his duties as president in a satisfactory way to him and the members. Other speeches were delivered by Gustave Hurd, Dr. Ubald Paquin, Joseph A. Gauthier and Joseph Carrier.
A concert was given by the band in the course of the evening, lunch, cigars and refreshments were distributed. Songs were also rendered by several of those present. The affair was attended by about 100 persons, including members of the Sharpshooters' band and society. The invited guests were: Donald Tremblay, president of the French-Canadian Artisans; Hector Lecuyer, of Court Bonaventure, Franco-American Foresters; George D. Lacroix, of Court Sacred Heart, Catholic Order of Foresters; Wilfrid Braultle, president of the Laurier Club.
The committee in charge consisted of J. B. A. Marchessault, chairman, Elphège Sansouci, Alime Turcut, Henry Faucher, Achille Coderre, Abel Meluncon, Prudent Coderre.

AFTER USING A LITTLE DANDERINE

What causes dandruff, itchy scalp and falling hair? Who cares—so long as Danderine overcomes this—and it does, and quickly too—it does more, it grows hair and we can prove it.
Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting all over the scalp.
